

Zinc Training Course Dates 2010

Zinc Training Courses

The following dates in 2010 have now been agreed for the delivery of training courses in the design and installation of zinc roofing sheets. The courses are organised by the FTMRC at the LSA Roof Training Centre in East Peckam, Kent. Trainers, tools, material and equipment are provided by VM Zinc.

March 16-18

May 18-20

July 20-22

Sep 21-23

Nov 16-18
Basic Level

Soldering techniques

Theoretical presentaion and approach to standing seams

Installation and crimping of standing seam trays

Eaves and ridge finishing (basic technique using saddle piece)

Finishing a chimney detail with soldering

Installation of a verge with capping or fascia

Bay end detailing

Intermediate Level

Review of soldering techniques

Hips

Valleys

Chimney with U-section

Ventilation pipe

Alternatives for ridge and end finishing (curved, pinched seam, etc)

Advanced Level

Dormer, curved and square

Swept ends

Supplementary detailing

For a booking form to register for any of the above course dates and for further information, contact the FTMRC on 01342 301627 or by Emailing rwr@ftmrc.co.uk

The courses will mostly be at basic level, although more advanced training will be provided, subject to demand.

Course content will generally include: